Northerly Island

Last Updated March 16, 2018

A true gem located on a 91-acre peninsular piece of land surrounded by Lake Michigan to the south and east and Burnham Harbor to the west, Northerly Island is sure to amaze your guests.

Just southwest of the Museum Campus and directly east of Soldier Field. The Visitor Center is the former terminal building when the area was Meigs Field.

The expansive space also caters to the needs of meeting planners as well as larger scale productions and conventions. This distinctive location is a very exclusive selection for your special event.

Plan a metropolitan event with equal parts iconic skyline and natural oasis that your guests will always remember!

Event Spaces & Capacity

Location	Sq. Ft.	Measurements	Capacity
Visitor Center Main Lobby Area	4163	58'x80'	150 people for a seated dinner with a dance floor 200 people for a seated dinner without a dance floor 400 cocktail reception
